

Surge protection in thin slices

The 3.5 mm solution for MCR applications

TERMITRAB complete is the world's narrowest surge protection for MCR technology. The new product range provides you with a complete system kit, featuring a status indicator and optional remote signaling. The narrowest protective devices are only 3.5 mm wide.

For additional information call +49 5235 3-00 or visit phoenixcontact.com